South Sudan Council of Churches (SSCC)
Message to the Muslim Brothers and Sisters in South Sudan on the Celebration of the Eid Al Fitr Al Mubarak.

South Sudan Council of Churches (SSCC) on the occasion and the celebration that marks the beginning of Eid Al-Fitr Al Mubarak, a festive season ending the fasting and prayer period during the month of Ramadan 1442, joins the global human community to wish our Muslim brothers and sisters a Happy and Joyful Eid Al-Fitr Al Mubarak Holidays.

For our Muslim Brothers and Sisters in the Republic of South Sudan, we wish you all a Happy and Blessed Eid Al-Fitr Al Mubarak. This is an opportunity to reflect on the one month of fasting and to recommit to the compassion, gratitude, and generosity of Allah towards His People in the context of COVID-19 pandemic in the Global Community and particularly to the people of South Sudan. May this festive season be a period to continue reflecting on the good deeds in our country, and to share the same compassion with underprivilege brothers and sisters in respective communities in the Republic of South Sudan.

As shared values, South Sudan Council of Churches (SSCC) will continue to preach and advocate for compassion, generosity and above all work for Reconciliation and sustainable peace in the Republic of South Sudan.

We wish you All a Happy and Joyful Eid Al Fitr Mubarak!

O God Bless South Sudan.
